Suggestions on Course Selection

1. For exchange students, SHOU offers Chinese language course, English language course, Chinese-taught Academic courses and English-taught Academic courses.
2. First, please read the SHOU Factsheet of Exchange Program carefully, consult your home university about the required credits, course selection and the credit-transfer, and decide what kind of courses you will take at SHOU.
3. All exchange students are suggested to learn Chinese for a better involvement in the study and life here in Shanghai, especially those who major in Chinese language at home institute, or those who need to learn mainly/intensively the Chinese language. It is advisable for you to choose Chinese language program which has classes of Chinese in the morning from Monday to Friday.
4. For students who intend to take Chinese- or English-taught academic courses in our colleges, please contact us to get course list and description. To select courses in the colleges, please follow your home university's requirements to select 2 to 3 academic courses.
5. When filling up the application form, please state your study plan and make preliminary course selection. On enrollment days, course adjustment is allowed. The final course selection and the credits will be confirmed during the first week.
